

House Resolution No. 1895

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State educators who admirably help students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Bryan McDonald of Grain Valley, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as the Assistant Superintendent of Schools for the Grain Valley R-V School District; and

Whereas, on May 17, 2007, Bryan McDonald will enhance his already impressive record of achievement when he receives a Doctor of Education degree from Saint Louis University; and

Whereas, a Deacon of Education at East Independence Church of Christ, Bryan McDonald also has developed and maintained an excellent reputation for his activities with the Grain Valley Optimist Club, as the Coordinator for Project Lead the Way, as a Board member of the Professional Development Network of Greater Kansas City, as a State Board member of the Show-Me Curriculum Administrators Association, and as a member of the Missouri Staff Development Council; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Bryan McDonald has received a Missouri State Central Office Award for Accelerated Schools and has published in the Missouri Association of Elementary Principals magazine and in the Wall Street Journal; and

Whereas, an avid fisherman who enjoys spending time with family and friends, Bryan McDonald also enjoys riding his bicycle and raising money for charity by participating in the Greater Ozarks MS-150; and

Whereas, Bryan McDonald is the beloved husband of Karen McDonald, loving father of Kelsey McDonald and Katelynn McDonald, and devoted son of David and Emma McDonald:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered thus far in life by Bryan McDonald and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon earning a Doctor of Education degree from Saint Louis University; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Dr. Bryan McDonald of Grain Valley, Missouri.
